

Factory and shop closures 'will push UK into deep recession'

KPMG study finds GDP has already stalled as firms shut doors amid coronavirus crisis

▲ A deserted Regent Street in central London. Businesses have closed and shoppers are restricting their spending

SHREWSBURY COLLEGES GROUP

YEAR 11 BUSINESS INDUCTION WORK

Welcome to Business!

As you begin your Sixth Form studies, we are keen that you develop an understanding about how real businesses work and the challenges they face.

Never more so than now have businesses faced difficult decisions about their future, including:

- How to pay their staff?
- How to look after their staff?
- How to survive the current economic situation in the UK?
- Whether they need to change the way they do business in the short-term?
- What to sell to meet changing customer needs?
- How to source supplies from all over the world?

Here's your challenge....

Choose a well-known UK business.

Document (write) their ups and downs and key decisions over the next 5 months

(see box below for ideas).

Add in relevant news articles / data / images to show what's happening to your business in the current climate.

Create a timeline

Create a presentation

Write a report